Description of Donated Assets and Deed of Gift

The undersigned donor hereby unconditionally donates to Brigham Young University for its Harold B. Lee Library the assets listed below and the undersigned does not intend to claim the gift as a charitable contribution for tax purposes.:

Description of Assets

The undersigned donor owns the assets listed above free and clear of the interest of any other person and has the right to dispose of the assets in any manner. The donor acknowledges the actual delivery of the assets to a representative of the BYU Harold B. Lee Library (BYU Library) and acknowledges that BYU will now own the assets described above. The undersigned donor will have no further rights or interest in or to the assets, and BYU will not be responsible to the donor for any loss or damage relating to the assets. It is understood that the BYU Library only retains materials that are relevant to BYU's curricular and research needs and that it has the right to dispose of donated assets in any manner.
